

Behind the Numbers of PA School District Property Tax Reform

Civic Leadership Education Program

Breakfast Buffet
7:30 to 9 a.m.
Thursday, May 4
Berkshire Country Club
1637 Bernville Road
Reading

Featuring
State Sen. David Argall
and
Mark Ryan
of The Independent Fiscal Office

Efforts to reform property taxes in Pennsylvania by reducing or eliminating the amount of real estate taxes that fund local school districts has been a hot button issue for the last several years. Join us as State Sen. David Argall, a proponent of reforms, outlines his position, and Mark Ryan of the Commonwealth's Independent Fiscal Office provides background information and a non-partisan presentation of the methods and options being considered. The IFO provides revenue projections for use in the state budget process along with impartial and timely analysis of fiscal, economic and budgetary issues to assist Commonwealth residents and the General Assembly in their evaluation of policy decisions.

Charge for breakfast is $20. Go to the Events Calendar at www.pelcentral.org for online credit card registration. Registration is also available by returning the form below to the Pennsylvania Economy League, 88 N. Franklin St., Wilkes-Barre, PA 18701-1393 or contacting the office at 570-824-3559 or pelcent@epix.net. Check or cash payment accepted at the door with preregistration.
