Watch PEL's Issues Forum: COVID-19's Impact On Commonwealth Communities

COVID-19 Issues Forum Panelists:
C. Kim Bracey, Executive Director, DCED, Center for Local Government Services; David Black, President and CEO, Harrisburg Regional Chamber & CREDC; Dr. George Dougherty, University of Pittsburgh Graduate School for Public and International Policy.

Moderator: LeeAnne Clayberger, PEL CEO.

How are municipalities coping during COVID-19? Does the state have a bigger role to play? Is merger an answer to municipal fiscal problems made worse by the pandemic? How could a realignment of where we work impact municipal revenues?

PEL and the Harrisburg Regional Chamber & CREDC tackled those questions and more during a recent panel discussion. Click here to watch!

Phil Klotz, PEL Director of Government and Community Affairs shared results of a survey looking at COVID-19 impacts on local governments.
